

Group

Kai Prince SFHEA

2025-08-03

Table of contents

Definition 0.1. A group is a non-empty set G together with a binary operation on G , denoted “ \cdot ”, that combines any two elements g and g' of G to form an element of G , denoted $g \cdot g'$, such that the following three requirements, known as group axioms, are satisfied:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.